Whether you believe it or not, you have an important story to share with the world. But with God, you don't need to have a big or dramatic story of how God has changed your life. Your story matters, but it's the story of Jesus that really changes lives.

If you're not sure what you think about Jesus quite yet, that's okay. If you're reading this, there's a pretty good chance that God has already been working on something in your life and in your faith.

And if you already know Jesus, you've heard the most important news ever — that Jesus changes everything. Now it's up to you to share that good news with others.

You don't need to be an expert to share the good news of Jesus. You don't need to be the best speaker or writer. You don't have to be popular or influential. You don't even need anyone's permission, because Jesus has already given you all the permission you need.

So don't be afraid. You have a mission to accomplish!

So go.
And grow.
And glow.

1:\ GO_

Read Matthew 28:18-20.

Are you willing to go and join God's mission to tell the world about the good news of Jesus and make disciples?

YES    MAYBE    NO

If you are (or you think you might be), write the names of three people you know who don't yet know Jesus.

Now hang on! There's something you'll want to do before you strike up a conversation with them. Keep reading . . .

Before you go and talk to these three people about God, start by talking to God about these three people. Write their names again, but this time add two things:

How you're going to pray for them.
How often you're going to pray for them.

You know those three names you wrote down? How confident do you feel about having a conversation about faith with them right now?

CONFIDENT NOT SURE NOT CONFIDENT

When it comes do your ability to share your faith with others, how do you want to grow?

It's not always easy to figure out how to have a conversation with someone about God, but one secret to having a great conversation with anyone is find common ground. You probably have a lot in common with the people you've been praying for, but here's something we all have in common: we're not perfect. We all have room to grow. So start there! Get honest about your struggles.

Why did you need Jesus? Why do you still need Him?

How has God helped you grow since you met Jesus?

If you've decided to go forward with your mission (by talking to God about people and talking with people about God), and you know how God is helping you grow, then it's time for you to glow!

Read Matthew 5:14-16. Think about how you could be a light for the three people you've been praying for.

How will you choose to "glow" with your words?

How will you choose to "glow" with your actions?

Write those three names one more time. Then come back to this page once a week for the next few months. Each time, write an update about how you've tried to "glow" with the good news of Jesus, and if you've had a chance to share your story of faith with each of them.
